REMINDER: ONLINE DEMONSTRATIONS & TRAINING AVAILABLE

LEARN ABOUT THE LATEST FEATURES AND CAPABILITIES: Schedule Today!

Virtual Demonstrations. Start the new year off right by attending an online demonstration or training class! With travel restrictions and social distancing still required for many areas, we continue to offer online product demonstrations and training to stay connected with our customers and partners. Schedule an interactive, one-hour product session with one of our experts and learn about our latest solutions, demonstrated live from an actual multi-desk operations control room. To schedule a demo, contact your Thinklogical account manager or visit our website. LEARN MORE

Tech 100 and Tech 151 Online, On-Demand Training Stay current with your AV skills with our online training classes. The Tech 100 online course provides an introduction to audio visual basics and KVM (keyboard, video, mouse) technology, and is a prerequisite to our advanced 200 and 300 level instructor-led classes. Eligible for 6 AVIXA CTS RU credits. The Tech 151 course is a modified, online version of the Tech 200 class. This course offers an overview of the Thinklogical TLX 10G product line and a detailed breakdown of our system management and control software SMP/SMP2 - System Management Portfolio. Not eligible for RU credits.
