INFOCOMM 2019: ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL YEAR
THANKS FOR JOINING US: Orlando, FL

Thanks for joining us at InfoComm 2019! We had another successful show and enjoyed meeting with customers, partners and new prospects. Many of you stopped by and experienced how our latest secure signal management technologies such as the new TLX1280 matrix switch enable instant situational awareness and improve collaboration, allowing for rapid decision making. If you missed it, we welcome you to a live demonstration at one of our four demo centers across the world. If you are unable to travel, we will bring the demo to you! Schedule your live demo today! NEED TO REDUCE COSTS?

WE CAN HELP : Total Cost of Ownership Benefits Guide

Thinklogical systems can help you reduce up-front and ongoing costs by providing added efficiency, reliability and security that alternative signal distribution solutions do not offer. The ability to manage multiple classifications of information through a single IA-accredited system dramatically streamlines the IT and AV topology in many applications and use cases. Less computer hardware and cabling, fewer software licenses, reduced power and cooling requirements, and extended equipment refresh cycles all contribute to ongoing infrastructure and maintenance cost savings. Download our Total Cost of Ownership Benefits Guide and learn why. DOWNLOAD NOW...
